

LEVAN

In honour of our favourite disco DJ Larry Levan, in this list we've put together a selection of our favourite wines. Hopefully they'll take you somewhere near seventh heaven and back again, or at least mountain high and river deep. These wines have been made with care and love, the majority by low intervention, organic or biodynamic winemakers who care as much about the environment as what's in your glass. Welcome to the party!

The Jura

The Jura is a beautiful area in Eastern France, in the foothills of the Alps and a neighbourly distance from its famous cousin Burgundy. A rustic place famed for its gorgeous dairy products from unique cattle breeds - it is also one of France's most over-looked wine-producing areas.

With its unique grape varieties Savagnin, Trousseau and Poulsard, as well as its fine examples of Pinot Noir and Chardonnay, and its legendary winemakers and practices, the Jura is a particularly fascinating and distinctive region.

Jura whites are made in two styles - 'ouillé' and 'sous voile'. More on these below.

Jura reds tend to be delicate, bright & perfumed wines balanced by their gentle earthiness and rusticity.

Ouillé White //

Ouillé refers to wine made conventionally (without any oxidation). These wines resemble those of nearby Burgundy, but are uniquely deep, textural & savoury thanks to the Jurassic terroir and microclimate.

Sous Voile White //

Sous Voile is the Jura's signature-style, allowing a layer of yeast (the voile or 'veil') to form over wine in barrels so that it may naturally undergo a process of controlled oxidation. This technique often imparts intense flavours of walnut and hazelnut, stewed apple and dried hay. It is similar to the technique used in southern Spain to produce some sherries.

Vin Jaune White //

Vin Jaune is the Jura's speciality - 100% Savagnin grapes that are aged sous voile in barrel for a minimum of 6 years, and bottled in its unique 620ml 'clavelin' bottle. The oxidation process turns the wine a glorious golden-yellow hue, hence the name. The resulting wines are deep, rich & powerful—the perfect drink with a good cheese board (Comté!)

"Two separate men in two separate cellars; Mathieu Allante and Christian Boulanger, both of whom have done various stints with Domaine Labet over the years. They have patiently been collecting parcels of vineyards over the years (2 in Rotalier, 1 in the village of Maynal-previously owned by Ganevat, and 2 more in Gizia) They focus on making additive-free wines using the traditional Jura varieties as well as some Pinot d'Aunis and Mondeuse."

"Marie-Pierre Chevassu-Fassenet is a well travelled vigneron having studied winemaking in Beaune, Dijon, New Zealand, Chateauneuf du Pape, and Champagne. She eventually settled in her home region of Menétru in the Jura. Practicing a very hands-on approach to winemaking, the vineyards are manually hoed and manually harvested with careful grape sorting following harvest."

"Alain Labet began this estate in 1974 with just 2.5 ha of land, a bit of a pioneer amongst his fellow vigneron as he bottled his wines from individual terroirs separately. He also shifted his focus more towards 'Burgundian' styles of wine production in the early 1990s— striving away from the common oxidative style known in the Jura at that time. Alain has since passed the reins on to his eldest son, Julien, who has carried on his father's rebellious spirit."

Currently only working with Savagnin and Poulsard but slowly expanding to Chardonnay, Trousseau, and Pinot Noir in the near future. After travelling to Alsace and learning under the likes of Bruno Schueller and Pierre Frick he returned home in 2014 to take over his father's domaine. With a strong academic background Valentin is very vocal about his beliefs in manual labour and viticultural farming in being just as much an intellectual process as law and legal proceedings.
