WHITE

- Christophe Blanc, 2022 Viognier, Viognier - Rhone Valley, France 83
“A great value viognier, with typical notes of peach, pear skin, mineral touch and vigour on the finish”
- Domaine Charvin, 2023 Côtes-du-Rhône Blanc, Grenache Rose & Bourboulenc - Rhone, France 84
“Laurent Charvin is one our favourite winemakers from this part of the world, his reds are ethereal. His whites come from the cooler northern part of the region, and aged in stainless steel for freshness but with nicely layered fruit, ripe lemons and pears with a delicate florality and a sniff of reduction.”
- Sylvain Pataille, 2022 Bourgogne Aligoté - Burgundy, France 85
“From vineyards 200-300 meters above sea level, from two different plots: one characterized by calcareous and pebbly soils, the other with a clayey-marly matrix with vineyards of an average age of 50 years. Bright, fresh and complex this is an Aligoté that proves the grape is anything but ordinary.”
- Laurent Habrard, 2020 Crozes-Hermitage, Marsanne & Roussanne - Rhone, France 86
“A beautiful Northern Rhone white, ripe with honeyed white fruits and a hint of truffle, silky with a long textured finish.”
- Domaine Rietsch, 2019 Vielle Vigne Sylvaner - Alsace, France 86
“Aromatic with a hazy golden hue. Fermented in tank for 7 months using indigenous yeasts. Low addition of sulphur for a nice little kick of funk.”
- Roucas Toumba, 2021 Les Premices, Marsanne, Roussanne + friends - Rhone, France 90
“Aged for one year in 2-4yo barrels, the wine is age-worthy, complex and dense but has retained an integral freshness and balance, with intriguing aromas of white fruits and flowers.”
- Jean-Philippe Fichet, 2022 Bourgogne Blanc Côte d’Or, Chardonnay - Burgundy, France 99
“This 100% Chardonnay delivers fresh white flowers, zesty citrus, and ripe yellow fruit, balanced by a crisp, mineral finish. Elegant and precise from one of the region’s hardest-working producers – it’s a perfect match for seafood or a hunk of aged Comté.”
- Georges Comte, 2017 Le Mouterot Les Pèlerins, Chardonnay - Doubs, France 110
“In a classic vintage, Chardonnay from this forgotten corner of France is a joy to behold. Pairing gorgeous stone fruits, a hint of reduction and an intense, stony minerality to brilliant effect, this is pitch-perfect and overdelivers in every facet. Compact and elegant, it possesses the kind of harmony that suggests it will reward drinkers for many years to come.”
- Serraghia Bianco, 2021 Zibibbo Vino Secco, Zibibbo - Sicily, Italy 120
“Coming from Gabrio Bini’s Azienda Agricola Serraghia located on the volcanic island of Pantelleria. Zibibbo from 60 year old bush vines, 7 months on the skins in terracotta amphorae. Fresh and super aromatic.”
- Emidio Pepe, 2015 Trebbiano d’Abruzzo, Trebbiano - Abruzzo, Italy 184
“A celebrated winemaker with a very singular approach to his craft. This is a beautifully rich, textured masterpiece, complex and layered, showing stone fruits and delivering a crisp mineral kick.”

Domaine Roulot, 2022 Meursault Blanc, Chardonnay - Burgundy, France 199
“An absolute banger for this ground breaking estate in Meursault. Jean-Marc is known for his restraint with using new oak. The 22 vintage produced something a touch more flamboyant and ready to drink, so expect something clean and precise but with an generous sensuality.”

ORANGE

Valdisole, 2020 Oveipo Oneiro, Savagnin - Roero, Piedemont 87
“Yes, a savagnin from Italy!! This is a pretty special cuveé, so expect a floral, slightly oxidative wine with gentle aromatics and savoury and spicy notes. The variety really displays its tropical qualities in an elegant and refined way. Only bottled in 50cl and about 350 bottles produced!!

Domaine Kitma-Ligas, 2022 Lamda, Assyrtiko - Pella, Greece 88
“Stone fruits, wild herbs, balsamic and pine- reminiscent of the Greek countryside. Deliciously complex, rich and yet still very fresh and approachable, with the depth of flavour that has become the Ligas signature.”

RED

Amorotti, 2020 Cerasuolo d'Abruzzo, Montepulciano - Abruzzo, Italy 79
“Organically grown on an estate dating back to 1521, Cerasuolo is a unique style of rosé, typically much deeper in colour with more structure and intensity to match. Notes of clementine, quince, and a hint of dried savoury herbs, spicy earthy note plus a little tannic grip.” *Can be served chilled

François de Nicolay, 2022 Pinosheim, Pinot Noir - Burgundy, France 82
“Made from grapes coming from the Châtenois area of Alsace, this Pinot is bursting with ripe black fruit flavours and bright acidity.”

Argiano, 2023 Rosso di Montalcino, Sangiovese - Tuscany, Italy 81
“Sangiovese with a spring in its step. Juicy cherries, spice and signature Tuscan savouriness, it's aged in French oak to smooth the edges. The kind of red that makes everything on the table taste better.”

Domaine J. Chamonard, 2019 Morgon, Gamay - Beaujolais, France 89
“Gorgeous dark red cherry in colour and flavour. Well balanced with silky tannins and a touch of iron on the finish.”

Baka Collective, 2019 Rouge No.2, Alicante - Languedoc Roussillon/Jura, France 92
“A collaborative project from multiple ‘cult’ winemakers including Sébastien Morin, Jean-Marc Brignot, Stéphane Planche, and Charles Dagand. Using fruit sourced from Limoux to the Jura. This Alicante is fresh and fruit forward with soft tannins and notes of dried herbs on the finish.”

- Franz Strohmeier, Karmin No.8, Blauer Wildbacher - Styria, Austria 99
 “Producing ethereal wines, Franz believes in biodiversity above all with a focus on the health of the vineyard as a whole. Not wanting to disrupt the balance Franz takes a very hands-off approach allowing the finished wine to speak for itself. Light, yet earthy and complex.”
- Dard et Ribo, 2023 ‘C’est le Printemps’ Crozes-Hermitage, Syrah - Rhone, France 101
 “A vibrant, early-release Syrah from the Rhône’s celebrated natural winemakers. Full of bright cherry and raspberry, alongside peppery spice and a hint of wild herbs. Soft tannins and a refreshing acidity make it smooth and drinkable, with a crisp, dry finish that lingers. Released just months after harvest to showcase its youthful, fresh character.”
- Château des Graviers, 2018 Margaux, Cab Sauvignon, Merlot, Cab Franc - Bordeaux, France 103
 “This Bordeaux beauty boasts deep, rich black fruits with superb texture and fresh, mineral-driven flavours. Christophe Landry’s meticulous approach to terroir and barrel aging gives it an elegant balance of power and freshness, with a finish that’s long, smooth, and memorable.”
- Domaine Pierrick Bouley, 2021 Bourgogne Côte d’Or, Pinot Noir - Burgundy, France 105
 “Bright and effortlessly charming, this is classic Côte d’Or with a modern touch. Bursting with wild strawberries, crushed raspberries and smoke, with fine tannins and a gentle spice running through. Young Burgundy with pedigree: organically grown, low-intervention banger from Volnay’s rising star.”
- Gabrio & Giotto Bini, 2020 Serraghia Fanino, Cataratto & Pignatellio - Sicily, Italy 111
 “A remarkable blend of white and red grapes grown on the volcanic island of Pantelleria. Aged on the skins in terracotta amphora buried within the vineyard, this wine bursts with originality displaying notes of fresh blood oranges and a dash of spice.”
- Domaine Charvin, 2020 Chateauneuf-du-Pape, Grenache, Syrah, Mourvèdre - Rhône, France 115
 “Serious wine with a playful edge. With dark cherry, spice and a dash of wild Rhône herbs, this bold red is all charm and depth. Made by Laurent Charvin – a master of minimal intervention – it’s rich, smooth, and dangerously drinkable.”
- Château Ste Anne, 2018 Bandol Rouge, Mourvèdre, Grenache, Cinsault - Provence, France 102
 “A masterclass in Bandol, this red is the perfect balance of power and elegance. Packed with spiced black fruits, liquorice, and a touch of gamey, leathery depth. Fresh acidity lifts the wine, leaving a smooth, berry-filled finish. Grown organically since the 1970s, this is a wine with history and character – the dark horse of Provence that’s every bit as sophisticated as it is bold.”
- Domaine de la Chevalerie, 1993 Les Busardieres, Bourgueil, Cabernet Franc - Loire, France 124
 “A remarkable wine! Complex, full bodied yet still fresh. Expect a riot of blueberries and mint, with a wonderful savoury ribbon of pepper and spice.”
- Domaine Roulot, 2022 Auxey-Duresses 1er Cru, Pinot Noir - Burgundy, France 173
 “A domaine that needs little introduction, Roulot is one of France’s most rare and in demand wines. 2022 was a generous vintage, offering delicious fruit, nicely balanced out with a delicate florality and touch of earth. A beautifully complex and intriguing bottle from an often underrated appellation.”
- Frédéric Cossard, 2019 Les Champs Perdrix, Vosne-Romanée, Pinot Noir - Burgundy, France 180
 “Well known négociant producer, Cossard has produced a Pinot Noir from a neighbouring parcel of La Tâche. 60 year old vines on clay-limestone soils. An unforgettable wine— if you know, you know.”

MAGNUMS

WHITE

Tony Bornard, le Rouge Queue 2016 Melon a Queue Rouge - Jura, France 210

"A strange cousin of Chardonnay only from the Jura, this white has all the hallmarks of a classic Jura white, nice citrus fruit, plenty of energy and texture, a hint of oxidation and a beautifully long finish."

Domaine Ganevat, Cuvée Marguerite 2018 Melon a Queue Rouge - Jura, France 250

"This exceptional Côtes du Jura comes from the oldest vineyard they work with. The palate is voluminous, oily and mineral."

David & Naima Didon, Bourgogne Rouge Cuvée Longue 2017 Pinot Noir - Burgundy, France 140

"Alive and classy Pinot from old vines, aged in old oak for 18 months. Amazing balance and depth."

THE JURA

The Jura is a beautiful area in Eastern France, in the foothills of the Alps and a neighbourly distance from its famous cousin Burgundy. A rustic place famed for its gorgeous dairy products from unique cattle breeds - it is also one of France's most over-looked wine-producing areas.

With its unique grape varieties Savagnin, Trousseau and Poulsard, as well as its fine examples of Pinot Noir and Chardonnay, and its legendary winemakers and practices, the Jura is a particularly fascinating and distinctive region.

Jura whites are made in two styles - 'ouillé' and 'sous voile'. More on these below.

Jura reds tend to be delicate, bright & perfumed wines balanced by their gentle earthiness and rusticity.

Ouillé White //

Ouillé refers to wine made conventionally (without any oxidation). These wines resemble those of nearby Burgundy, but are uniquely deep, textural & savoury thanks to the Jurassic terroir and microclimate.

Sous Voile White //

Sous Voile is the Jura's signature-style, allowing a layer of yeast (the voile or 'veil') to form over wine in barrels so that it may naturally undergo a process of controlled oxidation. This technique often imparts intense flavours of walnut and hazelnut, stewed apple and dried hay. It is similar to the technique used in southern Spain to produce some sherries.

Vin Jaune is the Jura's speciality - 100% Savagnin grapes that are aged sous voile in barrel for a minimum of 6 years, and bottled in its unique 620ml 'clavelin' bottle. The oxidation process turns the wine a glorious golden-yellow hue, hence the name. The resulting wines are deep, rich & powerful— the perfect drink with a good cheese board (Comté!).

Domaine de Saint Pierre

“Established in the late 1980’s by the late Philippe Moyne, this Domaine has seen great success over the years. Most of the grapes are grown between the areas of St-Pierre and Vadans on soils consisting of limestone & clay. The reds are produced via semi-carbonic maceration— expect some bright juice.”

Domaine Bénédict & Stéphane Tissot

“The domaine is widely regarded as one of the very best in Jura, and the Tissot family more generally is widely known in the region for its long tradition of winemaking. Bénédict & Stéphane converted the domaine to organics in 1999 and biodynamics shortly after, with the focus on pure expressions of terroir. The whites are characterised by a signature smoky reductive quality on the nose and immense power on the palate while the reds are fragrant and ethereal.”

Domaine de la Tournelle

“Evelyne and Pascal started the Domaine in 1991 situated in Arbois. They follow natural and low intervention practices, and their wines boast finesse, energy and purity. Pascal died tragically back in 2021 so we will see how this brilliant Domaine endures from here.”

Domaine de la Touraize

“Domaine de la Touraize can trace its winemaking roots back to the early 18th century. The name, La Touraize, comes from a vineyard that has been in the family since 1704. Stylistically, these are classic Jura wines, walking the fine line between oxidation and reduction, and at times, incorporating ageing under flor for their cuvées.”

Valentin Morel (Domaine Les Pieds sur Terre)

“After travelling to Alsace and learning under the likes of Bruno Schueller and Pierre Frick he returned home in 2014 to take over his father’s domaine. A great young vigneron of the Jura with a very bright future ahead, definitely ‘one to watch’ in the years to come.”

Les Valseuses

“Antoine Le Court-Chedevergne and Julia Naar are a young winemaking couple hailing from Angers and Brazil. Antoine travelled from Australia to California and Brazil (where he met Julia) making wine and spontaneously fermented beers. They’ve settled in Les-Planches-près-Arbois after training under Alice Bouvot (Dom. l’Octavin) to operate as a négociant project while they plant their own vines nearby.”

Amélie Vuillet & Sébastien Jacques

“Located in the commune of Molamboz, just Northwest of Arbois, both Amélie and Sébastien are natives to the Jura and have learned under some of the best from the region, including Bornard and Tissot to name a few. They acquired a small parcel of land in 2011 to make wine for themselves but in 2013 they began selling small amounts to a few lucky others.”

Zéroïne

“Established in 2018 as an exclusive négociant venture, Zeroine is the brainchild of Maylis Bernard, who happens to be Jean Francois Ganevat’s life partner. Maylis, daring to embark on such a bold career change, received invaluable guidance from both Fanfan and his sister Anne. Notably, there's a discernible alignment in the stylistic approaches of the two trading houses: characterised by distinctive aromatic profiles, lively acidities and exceptionally flavourful palates.”
